Microcurrent Non Surgical Facelift Facial

A safe and gentle, non-invasive alternative to plastic surgery procedures that shows both immediate and long term results.

Microcurrent works in harmony with the natural bio-electrical currents found in our bodies to help speed up the regenerative process, promoting collagen and elastin production in your skin to plump and improve elasticity.

Fine lines and wrinkles are reduced, skin tone becomes more even and the supporting muscle tissue under the skin is strengthened resulting in firmer, healthier, more youthful looking skin.

This advanced facial treatment includes deep cleansing, circulation boosting and detoxifying techniques.
